

UNGRIPP

United Group for Reform of IPP

Parliamentary session for MPs and Peers

On the 28th of September 2022, the Justice Select Committee published its findings from their inquiry into the IPP sentence. The Government has rejected the key recommendations , and more has to be done.

Be fully informed and take action

UNGRIPP is holding a Parliamentary session for MPs and Peers, hosted by Lord Hastings of Scarisbrick. Please come along to find out more about the Justice Select Committee report, the IPP sentence, and the impact it is having on people serving it and their families. Speak to those who implemented this sentence, those who have been affected by it, alongside criminal justice professionals who have been involved in the sentence since its inception.

Speakers

Lord Blunkett

Lord Clarke of Nottingham

Nicolas Cooke - retired judge

Members from UNGRIPP

Date: Tuesday 13th June 2023

Time: 5pm - 6.30pm

Location: Committee Room G,
Refreshments will be provided

Please come along - and make an informed decision about your views on the IPP sentence.

